The Glass Blower

The glass blower is truly a symbol.
A symbol of artistry, tradition and pride.
The artistry stems from the first piece of glass blown in ancient Syria towards the last quarter of the first century B.C.
Generations later, the tradition was brought to Salem, West Virginia.
Tradition. A key word at Alco.
Because Alco continues the artistry, tradition and pride.

When you look at Alco Glassware, you can see all three elements. Because you're looking at the loveliest glassware in the world.

Alco Glassware is hand-made to complement your food and dining room decor.

In their hands, or held to their lips, glassware is your most intimate contact with your patrons. So your choice should be Alco. Because no glassware is more meaningful or more reflective of artistry, tradition and pride.
Isn't this what your restaurant stands for?

Add your crest or seal to Alco Glassware and you'll have something more than beautiful. You'll have a distinctively exclusive look of your own. This sophisticated touch will help keep the name of your restaurant in your customers' minds long after they've sipped their last liqueur. Alco can make a seal or crest to blend with any color or decor. Or, we'll design a seal or crest which uniquely represents your dining facility.

The Alco Correlated Collections

Beauty comes in many forms. So does Alco Glassware. Each line esthetically designed to complement other lines by Alco. So you can select by the line. Or, by mixing one line with another, you can choose the individual glasses you prefer. Either way, your dinners look more elegant.

More delicious. More memorable. That's the beauty of Alco crystal.
